The Tasmanian Health Service - Hospitals South is seeking interest for the position of Deputy Manager - Acute Services. The successful application will work alongside Deputy Managers in the Rehabilitation and Community Occupational Therapy teams to assist the Discipline Lead Occupational Therapy with the leadership and management of the Occupational Therapy Service.

The Deputy Manager - Acute Services is responsible for the efficient and effective functioning of occupational therapists, diversional therapists and allied health assistants working in multi-disciplinary teams within the medical, surgical and women's and children's streams.

Join a large and dynamic team and help shape the future of occupational therapy in acute services. Focus on ongoing professional and career development. Hobart offers a lifestyle unsurpassed anywhere else in Australia. Interested persons are encouraged to make contact to hear more about this exciting role.

The Service The Occupational Therapy Service includes over 90 team members consisting of occupational therapists and assistants, play specialists, diversional therapists, carpenter, and administration officers. We work across acute, sub-acute and community settings, including the Royal Hobart Hospital, the largest teaching Hospital in Tasmania.

Here, you are encouraged to be your authentic self, to pursue your passions, and to bring your clinical and world knowledge to the table to contribute to making our team one that punches above its weight with progressive and impactful care.

We are small enough in Tasmania for you to shape and influence your work and make a real impact every day. Yet we are big enough for you to feel part of something important, somewhere you can belong and be surrounded by diversity, innovation, and friendships. We'll look after you from the very beginning, ensure you are fully inducted and welcomed into our team and into our culture. We'll tell you where to go for dinner, and on your days off. And we'll invest in your growth, with time, resources, and expert colleagues available to help foster your development.

What's different about Tasmania is our culture and our lifestyle. Here you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to breath-taking coastlines, National Parks or award-winning restaurants or bars – all right on your doorstep.
