Company: Datadog

Location: Australia

Category: other-general

As a Director, Mid-Market Sales APJ you will provide strategy, mentorship, and guidance for a newly built team of Mid-Market Account Executives. This role impacts one of the largest lines of business in the company, ultimately bringing a proven product to a multi-billion dollar market and selling into companies from 1,000 to 5,000 employees. Datadog is launching Mid-Market in the APJ market. This is an exciting time for a leader looking to build out a new market within a well established, existing segment at Datadog. At Datadog, we place value in our office culture - the relationships and collaboration it builds and the creativity it brings to the table. We operate as a hybrid workplace to ensure our Datadogs can create a work-life harmony that best fits them.

What You'll Do: Hire and attract top talent to build out, oversee and train an APJ distributed sales team Be a hands-on coach for individual contributors to lead reps to success in their roles Provide accurate forecasts for region/deal/territory by rep and as a rollup Facilitate the ramp up for all new team members, coaching them to success Develop and monitor effective outbound prospecting strategies to increase new customer acquisition Evaluate trends to identify areas for improvement and adopt global best-practices in the Mid-Market segment Cross-collaborate with stakeholder departments to actualize on go-to-market strategies, win key accounts, develop training curriculum, meet hiring goals etc Provide strategy, mentorship, and guidance for earlier in career first line leaders and reps in other sales segments

Who You Are: Experienced in 6+ years of hi-tech, direct sales with a heavy emphasis on outbound pipeline generation and managing longer, high complexity sales cycles Able to accurately forecast team performance and hold people accountable Passionate about coaching, mentorship, and team management -

Motivated by leading a sales team, setting quotas and managing your team against those quotas
Strong communication and relationship-building skills
Customer-centric with a strong track record of developing satisfied customers
Successful in working cross-functionally, leveraging strong organizational and time management expertise
Someone who embodies our Sales Culture Principles: grit, teamwork, customer first and courage.
Have knowledge of the complexities of the different markets in APJ, including India and Japan.
Datadog values people from all walks of life. We understand not everyone will meet all the above qualifications on day one. That's okay. If you're passionate about technology and want to grow your experience, we encourage you to apply.
Benefits and Growth: High income earning opportunities based on performance
Opportunity for Presidents Club
New hire stock equity (RSU) and employee stock purchase plan (ESPP)
Continuous professional development, product training, and career pathing
Sales training in MEDDIC and Command of the Message
Intra-departmental mentor and buddy program for in-house networking
An inclusive company culture, opportunity to join our Community Guilds
Benefits and Growth listed above may vary based on the country of your employment and the nature of your employment with Datadog.
