Global business with PE backing and exciting growth agenda

Sydney based, global remit with APAC focus

Salary guide c$250K+ super + 15% bonus

Our client, a newly formed fund and corporate services provider, with ambitious growth plans to double their revenue and triple their profitability in the next 5 years, has an opportunity in their Strategy and Transformation team to help build the company from the ground up and truly influence what this business looks like and how it operates.

The successful candidate will have tier 2 - implementation management consulting experience plus hands on industry experience in a global role (8-12 years total experience), experience in implementation and strategic transformation, operating model, organisational design, strategic business planning and project and program management. They will have experience in a range of industries, including in a solution or service based business and/or financial services. Experience working with a PE backed business a positive.

This is a rare opportunity to truly shape this new business in a hands on role, turning ideas into strategies, plans and structures, execute on those plans and deliver tangible projects while building capability and supporting Office of the CEO strategic projects. The business has strong strategic leadership, integrity, sense of purpose and a real focus on people. If you can see yourself in this key orchestration and influencing role please apply now.#J-18808-Ljbffr
