Company: Head Medical

Location: Australia

Category: healthcare-practitioners-and-technical

Consultant Emergency Medicine required for this regional Victorian city.

Situated on the border of New South Wales and on the banks of the Murray River, this historic city is close to wineries and local produce markets.

The Benefits

Attractive remuneration package. Base salary up to AUD$477, 500 plus generous shift penalties (dependent upon years of service).

Relocation assistance for appropriate candidates, salary packaging, generous study leave and professional development opportunities.

Fly to Melbourne or Adelaide in an hour.

High performing public and private schools.

The Role and Hospital

The Emergency Unit receives approximately 34,000 presentations per year with a mix of approximately 80% adult and 20% paediatric. This is an 18 bed department, an 8 bed short stay unit and it is a regional trauma centre. This public hospital also acts as a referral centre to metropolitan hospitals as required.

Working in a highly collaborative and supportive team environment, the Staff Specialist Emergency Physician will provide exceptional emergency care within a multi-disciplinary team of medical officers and nursing staff to patients of the hospital.

Key responsibilities of the role include providing specialist-level emergency service care, fostering of relationships with colleagues and other hospital specialists, provide clinical leadership, supervision and teaching of junior medical staff, participate actively in audits, clinical meetings and safety activities.

Requirements

Applicants should be registered (or eligible for registration) as a specialist with the Medical Board of Australia and be a Fellow of the Australasian College for Emergency Medicine (FACEM) or equivalent as an overseas trained specialist who has completed their training in either the UK, Ireland, Canada, USA (ABEM certified) or New Zealand.

The Location

This north-west Victoria regional city is set on the banks of the magnificent Murray River and has a population of around 80,000. Within an hour flying time to Melbourne and Adelaide, it has the perfect Mediterranean climate, with a high number of warm sunny days perfect for visiting the many cafes and restaurants or relaxing by the Murray River.

There are great shopping precincts and markets, excellent sporting and cultural facilities, hosts numerous festivals and has many high performing public and private schools

This location is also known as the centre of Victoria's Food Bowl and is a major producer of citrus fruits (especially oranges), and wine. It is also notable for its grape production, supplying 80% of Victoria's grapes. Many wineries also source grapes from here.

Do you want to live in an oasis in the sun – a mixture of vineyards, the Murray River and the outback? With an abundance of quality restaurants, cafes, retail, and outdoor activities, including motor and water sports, this is a great place to live and work!
