It is committed to excellence in the education of girls and to maintaining a safe and supportive environment for children and young people.
The

Head of Community and Partnerships

is an exciting new position at St Hilda's School reporting directly to the Principal as a member of our Senior Leadership Team. Our Head of Community and Partnerships will play a pivotal role in building strong relationships and fostering collaboration between the school, its community, and external partners. This role involves developing and implementing strategies to engage parents, local, national and international organisations, businesses and other stakeholders to enhance the educational experience through community engagement and partnership development. The principle emphasis of this role is on the following duties:
Alumni (Old Girls' Association)
Corporate and Educational Partnerships
Marketing and Branding
Parent Support Groups and Volunteers
International Experiences
School and Foundation Events
Why join St Hilda's School?
Enjoy a passionate community which embraces collaboration and innovation and supports staff wellbeing and professional growth. We offer staff use of the school gym, a comprehensive employee assistance program and professional development opportunities. This role offers flexibility due to the commitment to working weekends and evenings when required for events and activities. Be a part of a community which promotes belonging and connectedness. As a prospective member of the St Hilda's Community, you must be willing to support the Code of Conduct and the stated values and Anglican Ethos of the School. The successful applicant must hold a Blue Card or be eligible to obtain one prior to appointment and be willing to have their name submitted to the Anglican Church's Professional Standards Register. Applications should be submitted by 10.00am Monday 22 April 2024.

Please address cover letter to the Principal. Please view the position description on our website April 2024
