Your business: The Technology division delivers the Group's information technology and banking operations functions to ensure the highest levels of customer service through world-class process excellence and technology innovation. Cyber Security protects the bank and our customers from theft, losses and risk events, through effective and proactive management of cyber security, privacy and operational risk. We support our people with the flexibility to balance where work is done with at least half your time each month connecting in office. We also have many other flexible working options available including changing start and finish times, part-time arrangements and job share to name a few. Talk to us about how these arrangements might work for you.

Your new team: The mission of the Group's Cyber Attack Response team is to provide a high-performing, reliable, and sustainable assurance to detect, contain, and remediate attacks from cyber threats against the Group's digital ecosystem.

Your impact and contribution: As the Cyber Incident Responder, you will be part of a highly skilled and experienced team of specialists across the organisation's wider Cyber Attack Response team. This role will have you lead and manage major and critical incident responses initiatives and operational alerts while offering advice to functional and technical stakeholders to support the organisation's cyber defence. You will also: Utilise sensor data and correlated logs containing IDS/IPS, AV, web application firewalls, Operating System events, web proxy, and similar data to establish context and scope. Lead major incidents utilising the cyber security incident response process. Maintain incident response documentation, lead post incident review activities, and write incident reports. Partake in an on-call roster where required to ensure out-of-hours incident response coverage. Demonstrate thought leadership in the enhancement of incident response capabilities. Participate in threat hunt and purple team activities to identify areas for improvement. Provide input as a subject matter expert into projects and initiatives where required. We are interested in people who:

As the Cyber Incident Responder, you will bring your commercial experience working across cyber security within an incident response and or Security Operations Centre (SOC) environment. You are a subject matter expert with the ability to advise on critical cyber incidents and offer technical support and consultative advice to the wider organisation to ensure the safety of the Group. You will bring:

Strong incident response and or Security Operations Centre (SOC) experience is essential. Strong artifact gathering, log analysis and investigation theory skills. Experience with malware analysis, intrusion detection, or other incident response specialisation is desirable. Technical background across a broad set of systems and infrastructure is essential. Ability to articulate technical concepts while catering to different audiences. Highly critical, analytical and self-aware mindset with a proactive service-improvement oriented work ethic. Ability to deal with pressure and be adaptive to change during major incidents. If this role is of interested to you, please apply directly or reach out to have a confidential discussion in more detail. If you're already part of the Commonwealth Bank Group (including Bankwest, x15ventures), you'll need to apply through to submit a valid application.
