Multisystemic Therapy Practitioner (527234) Australia, Tas Apr 18, 2024 About Tasmania Government About the Tasmanian State Service The Tasmanian State Service (TSS) is the largest employer in Tasmania, with over 28,000 employees providing services to the Tasmanian community at all levels, and within more than... Please note this position is also being advertised as a Multisystemic Therapy Practitioner (527234d) and only two positions will be filled on merit.Do you want to make a difference in the lives of young people and their families? Do you want to work in a dynamic team, working systemically with families, school, peer and community ecologies? Have a passion for CBT and Family Therapy? Then come join our Multisystemic Therapy team! We are seeking dynamic and passionate clinicians or MST Practitioners, to join our MST team in the North West. You don't need to be a current MST Practitioner to apply! We will provide ongoing training and intensive supervision to help upskill you to practice from this highly evidence-based framework. In fact, ongoing learning and development are key attributes of a what makes a great MST Practitioner. With a motto of "whatever it takes", MST is an innovative, evidence-based program that empowers young people involved in offending and other antisocial behaviour and their families to build the skills to achieve positive, long-term changes and improved life outcomes. An MST Practitioner is driven, enthusiastic, knowledgeable and has the skills to deliver evidence-based treatment to young people with complex presentations and their families. With ongoing access to training and support, and weekly supervision as a core aspect of MST, working in a small team you will share CAMHS's vision of providing quality, accessible, consumer-centred mental health care to some of Tasmania's most vulnerable young people.

The MST Practitioner will work as part of a small team to deliver and embed the first MST program in Tasmania, in strict accordance with the MST model. The MST Practitioner will:

- Manage a small caseload and provide in-home and out-of-home therapy to young people with mental health concerns and challenging behaviours, and their families.
- Identify and engage key participants in the young person's family, community and wider system to determine systemic risks and strengths to develop systemic intervention plans.
- Negotiate therapeutic goals and mobilise systemic resources to assist in meeting these goals.
- Utilise skills in behaviour management, cognitive behaviour therapy and family/care giver therapy to achieve realistic and clinically appropriate therapeutic goals.

Note: - Please refer to the Statement of Duties for all the selection criteria of this position to address in your application.
