A term rotation at PHC allows you to work in Australia's TOR Tourism Town for 2023. Make the most of your time with us and explore the region's natural beauty, warm hospitality, and superb tourism experiences Relocation incentives for experienced interstate and international RMOs are also available (information below).

The successful team member will have the chance to:

develop clinical and leadership skills from leaders in Australian healthcare, be involved and contribute within our friendly and energetic multidisciplinary teams, engage in ongoing learning and education, that is provided with continuous improvement and practice challenges that come from working as an integral team member within different specialties and services, join our many diverse and varied teams and be part of an ever-growing culture of inclusivity.

If you are looking for a refreshing change, opportunity to develop your career and be part of a team providing excellent health care, this could be for you.

Hear what it's like to work with us from our junior medical staff in the video below.

If you're located in other parts of Australia or overseas, you're encouraged to follow in the footsteps of many of our RMOs who have decided to make WA their home. Read about the recently updated relocation incentives available via the Belong campaign, which applies to experienced interstate and international medical officers relocating to WA and has been extended to 30 June 2024. Find information for prospective applicants/employees.

There are current opportunities available, and we are looking for RMOs to start with us from 2024 onwards. To apply, just follow our easy application instructions below. Our Values guide our work in every action, and that includes recruitment and employment. We encourage Aboriginal people, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, LGBTIQ+ people, and people with disability to work with us.

Want to know more? We encourage you to contact Dr Barbara King, Deputy Director Clinical Services or Dr Li Pung, Medical Administration Registrar by email at JMOCareers@health.wa.gov.au
