Here is a great opportunity to learn from Ex-Big 4 Partners that have moved their Big 4 clients to a more agile environment.

These are large private companies, High Net Wealth Individuals and even a US listed company. Their typical fees are $10K per client and go up to $200K.

With the client base built around sizeable corporates the only individual tax returns the firm touches are those associated with the business owners you are dealing with.

You will be dealing directly with clients, handling all their compliance and developing your skills alongside the management team in more complex areas such as tax advice and cashflow planning.

The position has come about due to growth and the practice is structured in a way to ensure progression opportunity as you move forward.
