We are looking for a Principal and a Senior Strategy Analyst to join us as part of a tight-knit strategy team to develop and implement AEMO's short – long term strategy, and manage the integrated strategic planning process including the development of the annual strategic corporate plan. Our Principal and Senior Strategy Analysts will leverage their strategy and energy industry experience and knowledge to analyse Australian energy system and trends, scenarios, and themes to answer key strategic questions and lead the analysis utilising their strategy toolkit. By supporting AEMO's strategy development, implementation, and communication, you will drive meaningful change for AEMO, in a way that balances stakeholder needs.

What you will be doing

- Manage/Support the planning and development of the long term strategy and the annual strategic corporate plan for AEMO
- Lead/support the monitoring, research and analysis of external market and industry trends to help AEMO understand emerging trends, strategic implications to AEMO and prepare strategic responses executed through our strategy Frame, analyse, and answer strategic questions using strategic frameworks and toolkit including qualitative and quantitative tools
- Translate energy insights and analysis to actionable strategies for AEMO to navigate the energy landscape
- Contribute to the development of thought-provoking strategic content to support strategic discussions with the Board and Executive Leadership team
- Build relationships and collaborate with stakeholders across the business through the strategic planning and development process
- Drive the development of annual strategic corporate plan and support the effective communication of the plan to internal and external stakeholders
- Work closely with leaders across the business to ensure alignment of business plans to the overall strategy
- Monitor and measure the delivery and achievement of AEMO's strategy, through tracking of AEMO's strategic initiatives and scorecard and preparing Board / Executive level reports

What you will bring to the role

- Strong experience in the energy sector and/or strategy development, with preference for demonstrated experience in strategy consulting, corporate strategy, energy markets and policy, or roles within the energy sector
- Demonstrated experience in effectively defining problem statements, determining the approach and tools to undertake the analysis / research required and translating analysis to the 'so what'
- Ability to effectively articulate/distil complex themes and data into meaningful and clear narratives and insights
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, with the ability to engage with diverse stakeholders
- Proactive and have the ability to work in an agile and dynamic environment

In return some of our benefits to you

- Flexible working: work from home, part time, job share, hybrid options, and additional leave options
- Professional development via projects, industry networks, job rotation, study assistance and more.
- Give back with up to 4 days of volunteering leave per year.
- Reward your hard work with annual performance bonuses (subject to eligibility).
- Embrace a healthier you with our wellness program, discounted health insurance, gym perks and our comprehensive Employee Assistance Program (EAP).
