Senior Manager Protective Security- Executive Protection and Events

Key role in managing and continuously improving the physical security risk management framework, methodologies, and processes.

Sydney based role and required regular attendance to the office and the ability to be available for short notice assignments.

Hybrid Working (Monday/Friday + Additional required days)

Permanent opportunity

The Protective Security team is part of Group Protective Services (GPS) and are responsible for identifying and managing security risk that have the potential to impact Westpac staff, customers, assets, and operations.

In this role you will be responsible for managing and continuously improving the physical security risk management framework, methodologies and processes used by Group Protective Services (GPS) to ensure the safety of Westpac staff, customers, and assets. You will also lead Executive Protection and events to ensure planning and appropriate controls are in place to mitigate risks and threats against our Group Executive and board. This involves identifying root causes and developing controls to reduce the likelihood and impact of physical security risks.

Specific responsibilities include:

Lead the team to assess the likelihood and impact of physical risk to staff, customers, Westpac events and assets including Corporate, Business Banking Centres, Branches ATMs, executive residences, and other assets globally.

Lead the development and implementation of operational security plans to ensure the safety and security of Westpac events including the AGM, profit announcements and other celebrations.

Ensure risk assessment framework, methodologies and processes used by GPS to assess and manage physical security risks are leading best practice and align to AS/NZS ISO 31000:2018 – Risk Management – Guidelines and HB 167:2006 – Security Risk Management

Develop and implement recommendations and controls to eliminate or reduce the impact and likelihood of security risks and threat against our Executive and board.

Develop reports which identify emerging security threats, insights and trends and provide recommendations to relevant business units to reduce security risks.

Manage CEO and Group Executive close personal protection as required.

Lead the response to security incidents including victim support, law enforcement liaison, root cause analysis and post incident review.

Develop and maintain security risk management and assessment policies and standards.

Manage the contractual relationships with security suppliers as required.
