Current opportunity

Are you an experienced transfer pricing professional looking for a new challenge and, more particularly, opportunities to work on interesting advisory projects rather than compliance? If so, joining our Melbourne TP team may be the right move for you.

BDO's Transfer Pricing team is experiencing significant growth and as a result, we require a talented individual to join our Melbourne team. We are looking for an individual who likes to be challenged on the more interesting technical aspects of transfer pricing, with strong technical foundations, thinks laterally, and strong focus on delivering practical, commercial and technically robust solutions to our broad range of clients.

This is an exciting opportunity to be part of a close knit, high performing and fast growing @multi-cultural and multi-lingual team. The role will require you to work directly with multiple team members and clients locally, nationally and globally.

Key Responsibilities:

Design and implementation of Transfer Pricing policies and operating models for Australian MNEs and startups

Provision of commercial advice in respect of new or existing transactions, working with medium/large established companies

Outbound planning and global value chain/business transformations

Leading projects; working closely with clients and other service lines locally and internationally

Supporting clients with ATO risk reviews and transfer pricing disputes

Preparation of Transfer Pricing documentation in relation to various intercompany transactions, including financial transactions

Preparation of benchmarking analysis and financial models

Review of legal agreements from a Transfer Pricing perspective

Working with BDO's large international network to service global clients

Managing all Firm related administrative tasks including billings and risk management

Preparation of newsletters and articles on Transfer Pricing matters

What you'll need to succeed

Desire to be challenged and work on diverse client projects and industries

Transfer pricing experience in a large chartered environment (Big 4 or Mid-Tier firm preferred)

A deep understanding of the global OECD Transfer Pricing framework, Australian legislation and administrative guidance and ongoing BEPS developments

Relevant tertiary and CA / CPA qualifications

Outstanding statistical, analytical and refined research skills

A lateral thinker with an enquiring mind

Experience in developing and implementing planning structures, controversy/dispute resolution, developing policies and effectively managing compliance requirements

Ability to independently develop and maintain strong relationships with clients

Strong team player with the ability to work individually when required

Ability to prioritise multiple client commitments and deliver exceptional client service

Strong business writing and numerical skills

What we will offer you

BDO offers professional development, collaborative culture, global career growth opportunities and an industry-competitive salary package. We embrace flexible and remote working arrangements to work together to service our clients.

We are committed to building your technical, advisory, leadership, and management skills, and balance work with promoting health, wellbeing, workplace giving and social activities.

At BDO, we want you to enjoy what you do and the community of colleagues and clients you work with.

As a firm, we embrace an inclusive culture and value the difference and unique perspective of every individual. We are proud to be named an Inclusive Employer by Diversity Council Australia (DCA).
