Modern growing facility

Work within a team who enjoy providing excellent service

At Eurest we've always understood the power of food – to refuel and refresh, to engage, activate and motivate. We're using that power to help workers across Australia live healthier, happier and more productive lives, with a new approach to workplace catering. From what we cook to the way we communicate, the menus and moods, it's all designed to have a positive impact on people.

THE POSITION

Mentoring and growing your team

Cost control and financial reporting

Catering at a high level across retail and functions (internal and external stakeholders)

Establishing and maintaining key stakeholder relationships

Communicate and work collaboratively with the client on all aspects of delivering a quality service to achieve mutually rewarding outcomes

Developing leadership and employee capability, and foster a high-performance culture through continuous improvement and innovation

Driving operational efficiency to maximise financial results without compromising quality

THE PERSON

Experience in a comparable environment or within a multi-site catering environment

Ability to connect with key stakeholders and deliver superior service levels

Commercially savvy and knows how to identify and deliver on growth opportunities

Proactive leader who is professional, positive, supportive and motivated with experience in recruiting, mentoring, training and developing a team of hospitality professionals

An advocate for diversity and inclusion within the workplace

A Foodie at heart

THE BENEFITS

Easy access to 100+ retail discounts

Opportunity to learn new skills and move to different internal roles.

Access to a wide variety of training & development

Work life balance

Clear career paths and support to achieve your goals.
