Join a fantastic and collaborative team, located in the Northern Suburbs of Brisbane to nurture the individual learning of special needs students.

Every day at this private Christian K-12 school in the Northern Suburbs of Brisbane is different and your role will offer a varied and interesting caseload where you can make a real change. With small class sizes, this school is focused on making genuine differences to every student's learning.

In a growing phase, you will have the opportunity to develop and nurture your teaching style in this role. Collaboration is key, with a focus on teachers helping one another to understand best teaching practices.

Working with a large cohort of learning needs you have the opportunity to help students realise their value, individuality, and the positive impact they can have on the lives of others.

Seeking a compassionate, empathetic, and experienced Special Education Teacher from Term 2 or sooner.

The Role:

Teach small groups of special needs students interventions, covering numeracy and literacy.

Support the teacher to develop, monitor, evaluate, and review Individual Learning Plans in collaboration with class teachers and parents/carers.

Train other teachers in best practices

Opportunity for progression and development

Work in a school with a large cohort of learning needs and small class sizes

To be successful you will need:

Relevant qualifications

QCT registration

Compassion and empathy

Active Christian faith

A hands on approach

Interpersonal and communication skills of a high standard

Experience in learning support in primary school
