About the AAT's Temporary Employment Register

The Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) conducts independent merit reviews of administrative decisions made under Commonwealth and Norfolk Island laws. We review decisions made by Australian Government ministers, departments and agencies and, in limited circumstances, decisions made by state government and non-government bodies. The AAT aims to make our review process accessible, fair, just, economical, informal and quick. For more information about the AAT, visit our website, www.aat.gov.au.

The Australian Government has introduced legislation that would abolish the Administrative Appeals Tribunal and establish a new federal administrative review body to be named the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART).

Throughout the year, the AAT may require people to fill short-term or project based work on a full-time, part-time or intermittent/irregular (casual) basis in the following areas:

Accounting and Finance

Administration and customer service

Communications and Marketing (including stakeholder engagement)

Data and Research

Human Resources

ICT and Digital Solutions

Information and Knowledge Management

Intelligence

Legal and Parliamentary

Monitoring and Audit

Policy

Portfolio, Program and Project Management
