This is Adairs

We are clear about why we exist.... To create WOW.... Our passion and purpose is to provide inspiration and expertise; enabling everyone to weave their own story of home.

The next couple of years and incredibly exciting for us as we embark on some transformational projects that will see is significantly investing in our team, the customer journey, technology and most importantly – understanding our customers.

About The Opportunity:

Whilst our stores are absolutely divine and you have stunning products to work with, the role of a Visual Merchandiser is not for the faint-hearted. You will be adding significant value through;

Implementing and upholding our visual merchandising standards across the stores

Replenishing stock and creating displays that reflect our trends and current promotions

Leveraging our fixtures to ensure the store looks full without being overcrowded

Creating an environment that tells a strong story, makes the customers feel welcome and increases sales

Part Time role, working 2 days per week, at our Canberra Store with flexibility to assist with extra stores and hours when required.

What We Ask You To Bring To The Table:

Demonstrated success and experience in visual merchandising within the homewares industry

An awesome attitude to do what it takes to make things great things happen

Sound knowledge and understanding of visual merchandising principles

Physically fit and not afraid of heights (did we mention that you'll be up and down ladders)

Creative flair and eye for detail whilst also keeping to the consistency of the stores

Current drivers license

Ready To Take The Plunge:

If you're ready to take on this amazing opportunity to consult and inspire your customers in transforming their dream home and lifestyle, then this opportunity is for you!

Apply by clicking on “Apply Now” and submit your cover letter and resume.....yes we do read cover letters!!

We cant wait to have a chat with you!

Please Note: During the festive Season our Talent Team will be away until 4th January, please expect a delay in our responses to your application. Happy Holidays.
