Boilermakers

Fuel Tanker Fabrication

TRS Resourcing has a Job opening for Trade-Qualified Boilermakers; we are a prominent recruitment agency based in Melbourne. We are seeking trade-qualified boilermakers for a day shift roster based on our client's workshop in Campbellfield.

Our client is an industry leader specialising in fuel tanker construction, repair, and maintenance. They have a substantial order book and are actively looking to expand their workforce. This presents an exciting opportunity for talented boilermakers to join a reputable company and contribute to their continued success.

Pay Rate: $55.00 Per Hour + Super, overtime, and $27 Per Day Travel Allowance on a temp to perm basis.

The successfully recruited boilermakers could also have the opportunity to transition to a full-time position with our client after a successful six-month/26-week period. The aluminium and stainless welding sections are available.

To be successful, you must be able to demonstrate the following:

Ability to interpret workshop/engineering drawings

Service, repair, and maintain the tankers

Have the ability to prioritise work tasks

Ability to work unsupervised and as part of a team

Hold a mechanical aptitude.

To be considered for this position, you must be able to provide the following:

Reference contact details of two past employers

Based already in Melbourne, Victoria

Have the right to work in Australia

Trade qualification (Ideally)

Own Tools (Specialist tools supplied)

TRS Resourcing is committed to achieving a diverse workforce in Australia. Therefore, we strongly encourage female and Aboriginal / Torres Strait Islander applications.

The TRS Resourcing team culture is based on our belief in being honest and straightforward. No matter the job listing, you will always know it's a genuine position from us!
